Data Processing Division*

June 27, 1980

Dear IBM Customer:

Today IBM is announcing for selected products marketed by the Data Processing Division and the General Systems Division lease and rental charge increases of approximately 5% to 7% and purchase price increases of approximately 5%. In addition, the following product and service offerings are affected as well as others outlined in the Notice to IBM Customers:

IBM Maintenance Agreement prices including the Additional Monthly Maintenance Charge Rate are being increased approximately 5% to 10% on selected machine types. Maintenance charges for a number of machines are unaffected. Field Engineering Hourly Service rates and Field Installation Charges are being increased approximately 10%.

Hourly IBM Machine Service rates are being increased approximately 5% to 7%. Systems Engineering Services, selected data processing education courses and publication prices are being increased approximately 10%.

Monthly charges for certain Licensed Programs marketed by the General Systems Division are being increased approximately 10%.

The enclosed Notice to IBM Customers indicates the effective dates of the changes and the revised prices for the affected products and services.

Your IBM marketing representative is available to answer any questions you may have.

Sincerely,

C. Michael Armstrong

Notice to IBM Customers

June 27, 1980

This notice announces price increases for selected data processing products and services marketed by the Data Processing Division and the General Systems Division of IBM.

The price changes for these products and services are summarized as follows (rounding of some prices may cause variation in percentages stated):

- Monthly lease/rental charges for machines, including model conversions, features and RPQs are being increased approximately five percent to seven percent for selected machines.
- Purchase prices are being increased approximately five percent on selected machines including model conversions, features and RPQs.
- Minimum Monthly Maintenance Charges, Additional Monthly Maintenance Charge Rates, and Monthly Use Charge Rates for selected machines, features and RPQs are being increased approximately five percent to ten percent.
- Field Engineering/Customer Engineering Hourly (per call) Services are being increased approximately ten percent.
- Field Installation Charges are being increased approximately ten percent for selected products.
- Single Use Charges are being increased approximately five percent on selected machines including features and RPQs.
- Hourly IBM Machine Service rates are being increased approximately five percent to seven percent.
- Systems Engineering Services rates are being increased approximately ten percent.
- Education fees are being increased approximately ten percent for certain customer education courses and Independent Study Programs.
- DP publications prices are being increased approximately ten percent.
- Charges for some licensed programs marketed by the General Systems Division are being increased approximately ten percent.
- Pilot Test Plan Unit Charges for some products are being increased approximately five percent.
- Motor Generator Set prices are being increased approximately five percent.

In accordance with the applicable IBM agreements, amendments and/or supplements, the effective dates of the price adjustments are as follows:

Agreement for IBM Machine Service: New monthly availability charges (MAC) and single use charges will be effective October 1, 1980.

Agreement for Lease or Rental of IBM Machines (LRA): New monthly rental charges (MRC), single use charges and monthly use plan charge rates under LRA will be effective October 1, 1980. The new monthly lease charges (MLC) will be effective October 1, 1980, up to the current applicable upper limits, and any excess will be effective on the next anniversary date. Additional Monthly Maintenance Charge Rate increases are effective October 1, 1980.

Fixed Term Plan (FTP), Term Lease Plan (TLP), Alternative Term Plan (ATP), and Term Availability Plan (TAP): The new monthly charges will be effective October 1, 1980, up to the current applicable upper limits, and any excess will be effective on the next anniversary date.

State and Local Government Customers: Those state and local customers whose fiscal year begins July 1, 1980, will not be affected by increases to products and services covered by fiscal year price protection amendments until July 1, 1981. For other state and local customers, the new monthly charges for lease and rental machines, IBM Maintenance Agreement service and programs will be effective October 1, 1980, or at the beginning of the customer's next fiscal year, whichever is later.

State and Local Government Lease Plan (SLGLP): The new monthly charges will not apply until the first anniversary date, October 1, 1980, or the beginning of the customer's next fiscal year after July 1, 1980, whichever is later for:

- Existing contract periods with a commencement date that precedes June 27, 1980.
- An on-order machine, model upgrade, or feature addition when the SLGLP Supplement signed by the customer was accepted by IBM on or before June 26, 1980, and shipment is scheduled on or before September 27, 1980.

In all other cases, the new monthly charges will be effective on October 1, 1980, or the beginning of the customer's next fiscal year, whichever is later.

Monthly Use Plan

- Amendment to Agreement for IBM Machine Service - Monthly Use Plan: The new Monthly Use Charge Rates will be effective October 1, 1980.
- Amendment to IBM Maintenance Agreement - Monthly Use Plan: The new Basic Monthly Maintenance Charges and Additional Monthly Maintenance Charge Rates will be effective October 1, 1980.

Purchase of IBM Machines: New purchase prices for all machines, model conversions, features and RPQs are effective June 27, 1980, except as noted below:

- The old price applies when the Agreement for Purchase of IBM Machines, Agreement for Purchase of IBM Series/1 Machines and their respective Amendments and Supplements, if applicable, for on-order equipment were signed by the customer and accepted by IBM on or before June 26, 1980, and the on-order equipment will be shipped on or before September 27, 1980.
- Orders (supplements) for all model conversions, features and RPQs for field installation, accepted by IBM on or before June 26, 1980, and shipped on or before September 27, 1980, will be invoiced at the old price.

Motor Generator Sets: The increased purchase prices for motor generator sets are effective June 27, 1980, except that the old purchase prices will apply to on-order motor generator sets through their scheduled shipment date if an Agreement for Purchase of Non-IBM Equipment has been signed by the customer and accepted by IBM on or before June 26, 1980.

Pilot Test Plans: The new Contract Period Unit Charge and Extension Unit Charge will not apply to contract periods or contract period extensions whose commencement date is on or before July 31, 1980. For contract period or contract period extensions that commence on or after August 1, 1980, the new monthly charges shall be in effect.

IBM Maintenance Agreement: The increased Minimum Monthly Maintenance Charges, Repair Center Service Charges and Deferred Central Facility Maintenance Charges, will be effective October 1, 1980.

Field Engineering/Customer Engineering Hourly (Per Call) Service: The new rates for Field Engineering/Customer Engineering Hourly (per call) Services are effective June 27, 1980.

Systems Engineering Services: New hourly rates for Systems Engineering Services will be effective October 1, 1980, for Agreements for Systems Engineering Services signed by the customer and accepted by IBM on or before June 26, 1980. Otherwise, the new rates for Systems Engineering Services are effective June 27, 1980. Existing GSD Systems Engineering Services Fixed Price Agreements will be invoiced in accordance with the terms and conditions of the agreements.

Licensed Programs: The new monthly charges for licensed programs will be effective October 1, 1980.

Data Processing Education: New prices will be effective for affected courses which commence on or after October 1, 1980. New prices for Independent Study Programs will also be effective October 1, 1980.

Hourly IBM Machine Service: The new hourly rates for IBM Machine Service will be effective October 1, 1980.

Field Installation Charges: The new Field Installation Charges for applicable model conversions and features are effective June 27, 1980. Field Installation Charges for orders which have been accepted by IBM on or before June 26, 1980, and are shipped on or before September 27, 1980, will be invoiced at the old price.

DP Publications: The new prices for DP publications are effective June 27, 1980.

New RPQ rental and lease monthly charges, purchase prices and RPQ Minimum Monthly Maintenance Charges not included in this notice may be obtained from your IBM marketing representative.
